

Merry-Go-Round

An FBI Leak on Hoover's Royalties

Masters of Deceit

Jack Anderson

FBI CHIEF J. Edgar Hoover is positively apoplectic over our story that he collected more than $250,000 in royalties from three books researched and written for him by FBI employees on government time.

We quoted friends as saying Hoover turned over the proceeds to his favorite charities. However, they cited the J. Edgar Hoover Foundation whose records showed no contributions from the venerable G-man.

We asked for an answer from FBI spokesman Tom Bishop. He finally said Hoover had "no comment."

Yet at the same time, the FBI apparently leaked details to William Rusher, publisher of the National Review, to use against me on the nationwide television program, "The Advocates."

The able Rusher said the profits from Hoover's best seller, "Masters of Deceit" were split five ways: one-fifth to Hoover, one-fifth to the FBI recreational fund and three-fifths to the FBI employees who did the work.

HOOVER'S SHARE, as nearly as we could calculate it from the book sales, would have amounted to about $30,000.

In addition, Warner Brothers paid Hoover a reported $40,000 for the movie rights to the book.

Rusher had no information how the movie money was distributed. But he said all the royalties from Hoover's next two books were signed over to the recreational fund.

Rusher refused to say where he got his information, but members of his staff told us he had been in touch with the FBI.

My associate Les Whitten called Tom Bishop again and asked him whether Rusher's information was accurate.

"We are 'no commenting,'" said the FBI spokesman.

Whitten asked Bishop why the FBI had leaked information to Rusher that had been withheld from us.

"We're going to 'no comment' on it," said Bishop.

Asked why the FBI didn't "no comment" Rusher, Bishop replied: "We have got a lot of people asking us about your column, and we are 'no commenting.'"

WHITTEN THEN suggested Hoover should give a public accounting of all his book and movie deals.

"I don't think Mr. Hoover has any obligation to make a public accounting to you," said Bishop.

We believe the FBI chief should make an accounting to the public. He collected huge sums for work done by government employees on government time. If Rusher's information is correct, Hoover pocketed some of the money, shared some with the FBI men who did the research and writing, then contributed the rest to the FBI recreational fund.

But the public is entitled to know more about how Hoover benefitted from work done at the taxpayers' expense.

The FBI can hardly be expected to investigate its own chief. We suggest that Congress properly should make the investigation.

the stand that "Masters of Deceit" was not written for textbook use. On this basis, Schneider said, using the Hoover book as an official text would be contrary to established policy and would "undermine" textbook selection procedure.

But Dr. Phillips contended that students will gain more from studying books on communism written by J. Edgar Hoover than any other books. He said he had examined "Two Ways of Life" and was convinced Hoover's "Masters of Deceit" is far superior.

Dr. Cranford H. Burns, superintendent of schools, gave his opinion that Mobile teachers as a group are "more conservative" than teachers throughout the country.

"The teaching profession," Dr. Burns said, "expects the board to act favorably on their textbook recommendations or to point out specifically why other textbooks are better."

The superintendent praised J. Edgar Hoover as "one of the greatest Americans that ever lived" and "a great authority on communism." But Dr. Burns stated, "Masters of Deceit" was not written for classroom teaching as was Ebenstein's "Two Ways of Life".

Com. Charles E. McNeil then suggested that Hoover's "A Study of Communism" be adopted for both the 8th and 12th grades. Pres. Jack C. Gallalee pointed out that this still would not be in accord with the recommendation of the teachers' committee.

Finally, the final selection of "Masters of Deceit" and "Two Ways of Life" for the 12th grade was approved by the board members after Dr. Burns had described it as an acceptable compromise.

SNF BUYS 100 COPIES OF HOOVER BOOK FOR ITS J. O.

To aid in a better understanding of the Communist threat and emphasize anew the public service aspect of the ethnic fraternal, the Serb National Federation has purchased 100 paperback copies of J. Edgar Hoover's "Masters of Deceit" book for its Junior Order Circles.

Distribution of these was begun last week in execution of an Executive Board order of February 10 following a suggestion of President Charles Bojanic to make the purchase. The initial batch of the Pocketbook Cardinal Giant edition of the original manuscript published by Henry Holt and Co. at $5 a copy was going to the larger Circle centers all over the United States.

Each copy on the inside cover bears the imprint: "Compliments of the Serb National Federation (with the address of the organization). An accompanying letter suggests they be circulated among the older youth members, then form the nucleus of what could be a library.

Patriot Actions

The book purchase follows the recent SNF action of screening "Operation Abolition," anti-Red film, in cooperation with Pittsburgh district legionnaires before a packed house in the SNF assembly hall.

The acts were interpretative of a stepped-up version on the part of patriotic ethnic groupings, to help Americans retain their equilibrium in the current psychological battle for minds.

Traditionally, the fraternal have always taken the lead in citizenship activities, in paying honor to the flag, and taking on all of America's enemies. In the case of our Serb National Federation and our American - Serbs, few have distinguished themselves as well in this role.

In proportion to other nationality groups settled here we had one of the best fighting records in both World War I and II. We had more Congressional Medal of Honor winners and in the person of the late Major Louis Cukela, U. S. Marines, we had the only dual holder of this Medal - from both the Army and the Navy.

Again, in the person of the late Alex (Jake Allex) Mandusich, we had one of the few Medal of Honor winners who was a national Vets leader. Up to his last days, though enfeebled and crippled, "Jake" worked with a trio of these organizations in his adopted Chicago.

'Surrender' Theme

Flyleaf of Mr. Hoover's book describes the Communist goal of "bringing America to its knees." The context relates just what is being done to effectuate this surrender.

In telling language, the FBI director relates that when the Kremlin announces the next generation of Americans will live under Communist rule.

"they mean it." Especially now, that America has taken the lead among the Western democracies, this is the goal every Red agent in the operation of the gigantic and powerful Communist network is dedicated to.

"Every citizen has the duty to learn more about the menace that threatens his future, his home, his children, the peace of the world," Mr. Hoover explained why he wrote "Masters of Deceit."

Some 40 years devoted to a collection of data is represented in the author's expose of the Communist Party in the U. S. A., who they (Reds) are, what they claim to be, why they become Communists, and why they break away. It's a picture of life within the Party - an inside story of mass agitation, espionage, and sabotage.

"Indispensable reading" the New York "Times" commented of the book. "It's the most imperative work of the decade" in the words of the "Christian Herald." And "every thinking, patriotic American should give heed," in the opinion of the "Philadelphia Inquirer."

John Birch Society

He Urges Vigilance and Action

Lehman Sees Peril in Rise of Rightists

By John Molleson

Former Sen. Herbert H. Lehman yesterday called for vigilance and action to fight "the new madness"—the rightist movement in America, which he said has a following of 8 million people.

"In my opinion," he said, "this movement represents a mighty danger to America and to the cause of freedom."

Mr. Lehman was introduced at the annual convention of the Brooklyn Jewish Community Council by Maximilian Moss, Kings County Surrogate and president of the council.

The members of the council adopted a resolution deploring Soviet treatment of Jews—a topic which Mr. Lehman touched upon—and commending American newspapers, the Herald Tribune among them, for bringing Soviet anti-Semitism to public attention.

Mr. Lehman compared the present "danger" to three others which had caused him to "raise my voice in warning and alarm"—the rise of Hitlerism and fascism in the 1930s, Communism and imperialism in the late 1940s, and McCarthyism in the early 1950s.

"Now again in these, my twilight years," he said, "I call upon you and all who hear me, to look, to listen, to be vigilant and to act now, in every positive and democratic way, to meet this danger and to overcome it in the name of freedom, through the use and practices of freedom."

'A Force for Evil'

Mr. Lehman, who is eighty-three, spoke to the council in the Brooklyn Jewish Center, 667 Eastern Parkway.

The former Senator said the "resurgent rightist movement" bore some resemblance to McCarthyism and was "a force for evil in our country, which in its potential harm, is certainly equivalent to McCarthyism."

"But let me emphasize," he added, "that the present rightist forces, as typified by the John Birch Society, are a quite different group from the McCarthyites."

The leadership of the McCarthy movement consisted mainly of the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, himself. "He had no real interest in building an organization," Mr. Lehman said.

"In contrast, the present rightist movement is characterized, above all by concern for organization," he said. "It consists not of one or two organizations but, according to a recent scholarly report, of 2,000 of them, with a total membership, or following, of 8 million people. The John Birch Society alone has more than 60,000 members."

Mr. Lehman said the report was the result of a survey made by the Roman Catholic magazine, to look, to listen, to be vigilant and to act now, in every positive and democratic way, to meet this danger and to overcome it in the name of freedom, through the use and practices of freedom.

Movement Well Financed

The "most alarming aspect" of the movement, he said, is that "it continues to grow," and "it has close connections with many elements in the business community and is consequently well financed."

Basing its appeal on the "confusion and frustration which are prevalent among very many Americans today," he said, "... the entire rightist movement is negative, nihilistic and know-nothing in its principles. In no positive sense is it truly conservative. Even Sen. (Barry) Goldwater has avoided identification with it, although I must say he has thus far failed to repudiate it."

The rightist movement has no nationally known personalities as its leaders, he said, but it has attracted to its ranks a number of retired Army and Navy officers.

"It remains to be seen," he added, "whether Gen. Edwin A. Walker (former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker) who recently left the

FBI Chief's Book Basis of Contest

The Missouri Regional Council of Catholic Youth is sponsoring a state-wide "J. Edgar Hoover Contest," a competition of book reports on "Masters of Deceit," written by the FBI chief, it was announced Monday.

Mr. Hoover's book deals with the threat of Communism and suggestions as to what citizens can do to fight it.

First prize will be a trip to the convention of the National Council of Catholic Youth at Buffalo, N. Y., in November. Mr. Hoover, in lending his name to the contest, said he will write to each contestant.

The contest is open to members of parish Catholic Youth Councils. Information, entry blanks and the book may be obtained from the councils' office, 414 Lindell bl. The office telephone number is FRanklin 1-480.

The contest closes Oct. 1.

FBI Chief's Book Given 3,400 Seniors in Area

Some 3,400 graduating seniors in Tulsa public and private schools have been presented copies of a book which unmasks Communism, "Masters of Deceit" by J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI.

Organizations and individuals who sponsored the project and school recipients include: Sand Springs Civitan Club, Page High School and Booker T. Washington; Downtown Tulsa Civitan Club, Tulsa Booker T. Washington and McLain High School; Will Rogers Rotary Club, Will Rogers High School; Red Fork Lions Club, Daniel Webster High School; Tulsa firemen, Nathan Hale High School; Tulsa Contact Club, Monte Cassino; Maurice Sanditen, Kelley; American Legion, Central High School. Other high schools, plus 955 books to go on the shelves of school libraries, were underwritten by: Pilot Club, Tulsa Sales Executive Club, Sogner State and Brookside Business and Professional Women's Club, Utica Square Kiwanians, East Tulsa Kiwanians, Brookside Lions, Northside Civitans, Ranch Acres Lions, Cosmopolitan Club, Moorlane Co., Don Turner, Jo Jean Hicks, Opal Vosse, Gary Davis, Villard Martin Jr., Betty M. Murphy, Lutie Mae Hoffman and the VFW Auxiliary. The idea was started May 4 by the Sand Springs Civitans and it has spread throughout Oklahoma and across the nation. The publisher of the book has indicated a new printing may be necessary.

Hoover Book Program Set for Tonight

A public meeting, designed to publicize J. Edgar Hoover's book, Masters of Deceit, will be held at 8 tonight in the American Legion Hall, 5938 Parkcrest St., Long Beach.

Lakewood Post 496 will sponsor the meeting. James W. Jackson, post Americanism chairman, said some of the books will be distributed. Jackson said the group also plans to distribute the books to area schools, civic organizations and service and fraternal clubs.

Col. C. S. Smith, a Long Beach publisher, will speak on communism. Lakewood Mayor George Nye also will speak.

The junior state champion all-girl color guard will post colors at the meeting. Music will be furnished by the newly formed Lakewood Pan-American youth band.

Roosevelt and Russia

By Lyle C. Wilson

THE Henry Regnery Co. of Chicago has published a book with a provocative title which is likely to stir up some angry dispute in the United States.

The title is: "Roosevelt's Road to Russia." The author is George N. Crocker. The price per copy is $5. That is a high price for a book of 312 pages, and it may discourage some readers.

Mr. Crocker's book is a fierce and bluntly worded challenge. It will be all the more offensive to FDR's defenders because it challenges their hero as the architect of World War II strategies which left the world in the condition now prevailing, which is a mess. The theme of Mr. Crocker's book is that FDR was a gullible stooge for J. V. Stalin's master plan to dominate the post-war world or as much of it as possible.

"Roosevelt's Road to Russia" is a chronicle of the men around FDR and of the great wartime conferences at which these men and the President matched wits and wisdom with the Allied teams and notably with Stalin and V. M. Molotov. Mr. Crocker documents his charge that the U. S. team was over-matched and out-played. He especially tags the late Harry Hopkins as a safety man who forever was dropping the ball for lack of the will to catch it.

"That a web of subversion was spun over Washington in Roosevelt's Administration is now beyond question," Mr. Crocker writes. "J. Edgar Hoover's 'Masters of Deceit' is but one of many authoritative sources which verify that the Government was infiltrated by both communist sympathizers and Soviet agents and that U. S. policies, plans and official attitudes were not only influenced by these infiltrations but also promptly reported to Moscow.

"If Franklin D. Roosevelt became, as war went on, Stalin's favorite fellow-traveler, it was not necessarily because any ideological conversion occurred.

"The pro-Russian atmosphere in Washington . . . was galling to many, including the frustrated Navy Secretary, James V. Forrestal. His diaries reveal that in September, 1944, he had written to a friend that 'if any American suggests that we act in accord with our own interests, he is apt to be called a . . . fascist or imperialist, while if Uncle Joe (Stalin) suggests that he needs the Baltic provinces, half of Poland, all of Bessarabia and access to the Mediterranean, all hands in Washington agree that he is a fine, frank, candid and generally delightful fellow.' Such was the frame of mind Roosevelt took to Yalta."

The dust cover of "Roosevelt's Road to Russia" says: "Many people will be made angry by this book."

That is a sound and reasonable prediction, especially if the questions raised by Mr. Crocker become involved in next year's presidential campaign.

Letters from the People

Masters of Deceit

Editor Record: Who are these assemblymen who adopted a resolution asking the federal government to put an end to nuclear weapons tests? They are not speaking for all the people of their districts. I personally do not believe they have any business putting through such legislation. They are working for the pro-Russian elements.

Nobody wants these nuclear tests to continue, but with the Russians breaking agreement after agreement, and the only country I can see that is really keeping the cold war going. It is best that our government continue to make these tests. Maybe if a few of these assemblymen would read J. Edgar Hoover's book called, "Masters of Deceit," they would not be so inclined to listen to a small group who want to do away with these tests. J. Edgar Hoover said in his book a lot of good people are taken in by organizations who say they are working for peace. The Communists use the word "peace" very loosely. We all want peace, because we know what all other all-out war will do, but not at the price the Russians want us to pay for it. I think if everyone would get a copy of "Masters of Deceit" their eyes would be opened. We read every day in the paper what the Communists are doing. Our government is not perfect, but I feel very fortunate to be an American, and I feel sorry for the Americans who are taken in by the Marx-Lenin line. The Communists do not care for the underprivileged or for the people who are out of work. They use these people to stir up trouble against our government.

My husband is a mailman and he does not bring home the largest salary every payday, but we are living a decent life, raising our boys to be fine Americans and we can come and go as we please without having to look back over our shoulders. But if you really want to see what the Communists are trying to do to our country do not hesitate to get the book I mentioned earlier in my letter. Every American should read it.

Why They Are Called "Masters Of Deceit"

President Eisenhower said at a recent press conference that we are living in a sort of half world. He said we were not fighting or not killing each other. But at the same time we are not living a normal life.

Mr. Eisenhower's comment came as a result of a question about Soviet Prime Minister Nikita Khrushchev. Suggesting that Khrushchev had the ability to turn on and off international crises at will, a White House correspondent wanted to know if the world had to endure this sort of thing indefinitely.

Comrade Khrushchev himself seems to have answered the question a couple of days later in a speech at Leipzig, Germany, a part of East Germany which is behind the Iron Curtain.

"Communism will triumph in Germany as it will in the whole world," said Khrushchev.

Then Commissar Khrushchev went into what Mr. Eisenhower has called one of his distortion acts.

Mr. Khrushchev said that the Western countries had tried to let Germany and the Soviet Union destroy each other in World War II. They opened the second front, according to Khrushchev's interpretation, only when it was apparent that the Soviet armies could drive to Paris.

After the war, he said, they refused the Russians "one penny" of reconstruction aid and sought to blockade the Soviet Union.

"But we broke through with our intercontinental missile," he shouted.

"The trouble goes on," Khrushchev said. "How will it end? With the downfall of capitalism. If there is a new war—one could start in a small way—it will end with the downfall of capitalism."

History is well documented on Khrushchev charges.

The Soviet Union had its opportunity to benefit from the Marshall plan which sluiced American dollars into war-devastated areas by the billions. But the Communists not only turned down the offer of aid, they would not even let their satellites accept it. They jerked Czechoslovakia back from the Paris Marshall aid conference like a puppet.

As for the second front, history is also explicit on that point. The Red army did not menace Paris. The western allies had to hold back for two weeks so as to give the Red army the "honor" of capturing Berlin.

The White House reporter also seems to have his answer to his question about how long we must endure this sort of thing.

Comrade Khrushchev says we will have to endure this sort of thing until the fall of capitalism.

The tragedy of all of this is that a large portion of the world will never know the truth. It will hear only Khrushchev's rantings. J. Edgar Hoover has a name for this. He calls the Communists "Masters of Deceit."

This is one reason Mr. Eisenhower himself should go to West Germany and West Berlin to answer Khrushchev.

J. Edgar Hoover's Book Distributed To Schools by VFW

Hamilton County high school students, studying world history, political science and government, have a new book to read, written by J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Frank A. Camp, commander of Noblesville Ralph Lehr Post, VFW, has presented copies of Hoover's book, "Masters of Deceit," to all the Hamilton County high schools.

"Masters of Deceit" is a book on the concise analysis, beliefs, aim, ambitions of the Communist Party. Case histories, truths about the communists and their plans to enslave the world—all condensed in a single volume by an author who is unusually well-qualified to expose the "true conspiracy."

The book deals realistically with the subject. It tells of false claims; why people become communists; why some break with the party; why some remain life members; it tells what strategy and tactics the communists use.

Hoover explains the technique employed to infiltrate into non-communist organizations. How "popular fronts" (charities, clubs, etc.) are formed and used to hide the real intents of the party.

Camp and members of the VFW and Auxiliary, who expressed their appreciation in assisting in the education of American youth in revealing the aims of Communism, seek wide circulation of "Masters of Deceit." It will shake us out of our complacency, they said.

Wayne 12th Graders to Get New Course: What's Americanism?—Communism?

WAYNE—The Board of Education Thursday night gave its unanimous approval for inclusion in the 12th grade of the high school of a new unit of study, a six weeks course on Americanism vs. Communism. It was reported the new policy makes the local school the first in the state to institute such a course. The text book to be used will be the book written by J. Edgar Hoover, "Masters of Deceit," dealing with Communism.

The Anthony Wayne Post, No. 174, American Legion, through its Commander James Roe, read a resolution approved by the local post, which endorses the plan to have such a course of study in the local schools.

Hoover writes: On being advised of the board's intention of using his book as a textbook in the new unit of study, Hoover wrote Dr. John Henry Martin, superintendent of schools:

"Your efforts to alert our young people to this problem are most commendable; especially since there exists a dangerous apathy on the part of our citizens toward the continuing threat of subversion. It is a source of great personal satisfaction to know that you consider my views on the menace of Communism worthy of such use. I write this note to wish you every success in this very worthwhile project."

Bernard Brody, president of the board, stated that for some time the board had been asking these questions:

"Are we sure that the present citizenship education program is instilling in our students a strong belief in our 'American Way of Life?' and 'Can we do more to help our students understand the threat of foreign ideologies especially Communism?'"

A committee composed of the director of curriculum, Morris

Poster for New School Course

ABOVE IS one of three posters to be used by Wayne school officials as guides in teaching high school seniors on the subjects: "What is Communism?" and "What is Americanism?" The Board of Education Thursday night approved the course based on the book "Masters of Deceit," written by J. Edgar Hoover, F.B.I. chief.

Wayne 12th Graders To Get New Course

Epps, the principal of the high school, John Van Dyken, and two social studies teachers, Richard Wonderberg and Carl Ordway, were asked to review the present course material and, if the need exists, to develop a new unit of study to augment the present program.

As a result, the committee proposed a new unit of study designed to answer three basic questions: "What Is Communism?", "What Is Americanism?", and "How does Communism threaten Americanism?" and for the textbook they chose "Masters of Deceit."

Divided Into Three Parts

Divided into three parts, the first part of the study unit teaches the history of Communism both internationally and in the U.S.A.; how the party operates; how it utilizes "front groups," "infiltration techniques," and "dupes"; and how it uses its underground organization to further the cause of this false religion.

The second part reviews the foundations of Americanism using as tools, such basic documents as "The Constitution," "The Declaration of Independence," and "The Bill of Rights," and the parts of "Masters of Deceit" which clearly define our concepts of freedom.

The third part of the study helps students to see how Communism threatens Americanism through espionage, sabotage, infiltration and agitation and then teaches them to combat these evils.

At the board's request, a preview of the proposed unit of study was given before the Americanism Committee of the American Legion and later before a community group of laymen and educators to obtain their reactions before formal presentation of the unit to the Board.

The reaction of the members of these two groups was enthusiastically favorable. A mother of a high school senior said, "I am sure many parents feel as I do—that just telling our children not to believe in Communism, as we have done in the past, is not enough. After learning the true facts about Communism and Americanism, they will be convinced that 'the American Way of Life' is the only way a free man can live and keep his self respect."

A veteran and educator stated: "With modern Americanism threatened as it is by continuing Communist aggression, this unit will serve a good purpose."

From a senior citizen the reaction was:

"We give free citizenship courses in our adult education program to those who want to become American citizens—let's offer this new unit of study to revitalize some senior citizens, like myself, who need a refresher course on why we believe in America."

A teacher had this to say:

"We have always emphasized citizenship education as a vital part of our educational program in Wayne. I see in this unit a real opportunity for youth to dedicate themselves to our American free way of life."

"It is our belief that," said Brody, "the only way to prepare our seniors to fight Communism in the years ahead, is to fortify them with the knowledge of exactly what they are fighting for and what they are fighting against. We feel that this new unit of study will review the heritage of the past, strengthen their belief in the aims and ideals of our present day democracy and make them ever mindful that the price of freedom is eternal vigilance. After graduation, whether they go to college, into the business world or become a home-maker, they will recognize, label and know how to deal with individuals or groups who are seeking to destroy our great nation," he said.

Legion Resolution

Legion Commander Roe read the following resolution and turned it over to the board after which the board approved the new course of study.

"Resolved, by the American Wayne, Post No. 174, American Legion, of the Township of Wayne:

1. "That our Post support the program of teaching the fore-mentioned subject in our public high school, using 'Masters of Deceit' as its text book.

2. "That our Post, in conforming with the National American Legion Constitution and resolutions as outlined, request the local Board of Education to favorably consider this above mentioned course to be included in its teaching curriculum."

Among those attending the meeting were former Mayor Walter Modes and John Weiss, president of the Wayne Township Rotary Club.

VFW GIVING BOOKS TO SCHOOLS—Shown above are some of the 1,000 copies of the book, "Masters of Deceit," soon to be placed in the libraries of the high schools of Indiana by the Indiana Veterans of Foreign Wars. Watching as Department Commander Art Fellwock stamps the books are Past Department Commander Sam Leman and Past Department President Mary Martha Hahn, of the Ladies Auxiliary.

VFW to Distribute Hoover's Book in Indiana High Schools

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, has written a book entitled "Masters of Deceit" which is in reality a history of the Communist Party of America and spells out in detail their plans to overthrow our free government and place our people under the "dictator type Communist government."

The Department of Indiana, Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary have announced a tremendous undertaking in connection with this book.

The VFW and its Ladies Auxiliary will, at no cost to the State of Indiana, place a copy of Hoover's "Masters of Deceit" in the library of every high school in Indiana. There are nearly 800 high schools in our state.

The object of this plan is to give pupils an opportunity to study and learn the aims and intentions of the Communist Party as they pertain to our way of life.

ROBERSON CLODFELTER FUNDERBURK

COMBATting COMMUNISM—C. W. Francy Post No. 70 of the American Legion at Oteen today presented 10 copies of J. Edgar Hoover's book, "Masters of Deceit," to City School Supt. Earl C. Funderburk and County School Supt. T. C. Roberson for distribution to senior high schools. One will also be given to Pack Memorial Library. The presentation was made by Post Commander Hubert Clodfelter as part of the Legion's program of Americanism and to aid in public knowledge of the perils of Communism.

MASTERS OF DECEIT

Fort Rosalie Chapter Hears Book Reviewed

Mrs. Hardy S. McKie entertained members and guests of Fort Rosalie Chapter, DAR in her Pickens home. Mrs. William Crouch, recent, received with Mrs. R. W. Harper and Mrs. A. C. Park. Mrs. Thomas Safley presented the National Defense report on the subject: "Inherent Dangers of the Russian Cultural Exchange Program."

The chapter voted to endorse the late of national officers headed by Mrs. Ashinead White of Bangor, Maine. Also running on the slate are Mrs. Cage Brewer of Clarksdale, and former Mississippian, Mrs. Earl Stribling, now of Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Herbert Forest, Vice President General, NSDAR, spoke to the group on the importance of genealogical records. She stated that it will be a project of the chapter to furnish at least one page for each member of authentic genealogical data obtained either from family Bible or from family cemetery records. Mrs. Charles Trenholm will compile these records of the chapter.

New members welcomed are Mrs. E. Griffin Alford and Mrs. William Warner, both of Jackson; and Mrs. E. N. Ross, of Pelahatchie. Received as transfers from CAR are: Miss Charlene Barr of Jackson, and Miss Susan Downey of Jackson, and Bryn Mawr College.

Mrs. Safley, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Joe R. Stevens, who reviewed J. Edgar Hoover's illuminating book "Masters of Deceit", a history of communism and its manner of operation.

Hostesses were Mrs McKie and Mrs. Hillary Davis, co-chairmen, Mrs. Charles Trenholm, Mrs. Christine Berry, Mrs. John H. Burttschell and Mrs. Tye Kennington.

Members and guests present were: Mrs. Betsy Jones, Mrs. Forrest, Miss Mary Berry, Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Park, Mrs. Safley, Mrs. Hillary Davis, Mrs. E. C. Vernon, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. John Clark Boswell, Mrs. Fritz Downey, Mrs. Christine Berry, Mrs. Charles Trenholm, Mrs. McKie, Mrs. W. E. Hardman of Flora and her guests, Mrs. Tabor Hammack, Mrs. E. E. Lane, and Mrs. Frank Simpson, all of Flora.

Fort Rosalie Chapter will hold its next meeting on Dec. 4 in the home of Mrs. B. M. Jones.

Hoosier Headlines

(Robert Hall Wyatt, 54, for 20 years has been spokesman, lobbyist, executive secretary and administrator of the Indiana State Teachers Association and takes the stand today to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but.)

Question: Harriet Stout and other lawmakers have described you as a dictator over Indiana education. What do you say to this?

Answer: I have no desire to dictate and I couldn't if I wanted to. The teachers of Indiana have brains. No one can dictate to them.

Q. Are you out to defeat Mrs. Stout and others who have opposed you in the legislature?

Mr. Wyatt

A. Teachers want to know voting records. We are only informing the teachers of how the legislators voted.

Q. You have described as foes of education certain "propagandists with a financial axe to grind." Who are they?

A. It doesn't matter who they are . . . whoever wants unreasonably to restrict state funds for schools.

Q. What do you mean by that?

A. We need a state-wide tax to reach people who are not now paying the property tax. We need more state money for schools.

Q. You planned and spearheaded the drive to build the new Teachers Building here in Indianapolis. Why is it needed?

A. We needed a dignified and efficient center for educational activity in the state . . . one that would help crystallize thinking on problems of the schools.

Q. Do you think we should have federal aid to education?

A. This issue is not an education issue, as such, it is a tax issue. If the tax problem can be solved any other way, then somebody should come forward with a solution.

Q. Do you believe in merit pay?

A. It offers great dangers to school morale and efficiency. We know of no such plan that is satisfactory.

Q. What do you think should be the salary for a beginning teacher?

A. Between $5000 and $6000 a year.

Q. Do you think we should teach driver's education and basket weaving in school for credit?

A. I think driver's education is needed. As to other courses, I would have to leave that up to the curriculum people.

Q. What about hoola hoop-

A. Only for pupils who expect to enter politics.

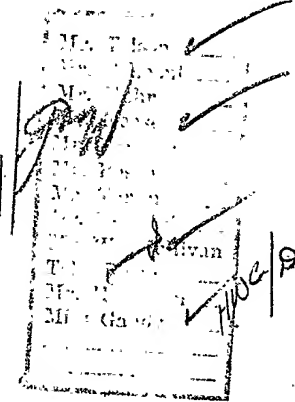

SENATOR GUSTY SAYS:
"A teacher is a person who swore she would starve before teaching—and who has been doing both ever since."

PEOPLE IN POLITICS —

Sen. Bill Jenner is the headliner tonight at the Murat Temple dinner given by Marion County Republicans in a last-ditch effort to get the Harold Handley campaign off the ground . . . Apparently, Amos W. Jackson,

Sen. Gusty

Democratic candidate for Supreme Court Justice against Republican Jim Emmert, doesn't know who the state's Chief Justice is. He sent a letter to Arch N. Bobbitt at the Statehouse addressed to "attorney at law."

NEWS ITEM — A committee to fight discrimination met in Indianapolis and excluded reporters. (I don't want to snitch, but that's discrimination.)

LA TRIVIATA — Some of the bookies in Indianapolis have the gambling bug so bad, says Prosecutor Tinder, that "if we took away their telephones, they'd train carrier pigeons." . . . The girl who asked me to introduce her to one of the gamblers in the Terre Haute case, now tells me never mind—in a letter from Las Vegas . . . Some people are beginning to call them drive-out movies. (No fair, they musta been looking at the pictures.)

NEWS ITEM — Garbage haulers complain there's no place to dump trash any more. (How are we gonna dispose of all those rock 'n' roll records?)

IT COULD BE VERSE—Nikita Khrushchev says hereafter in Russia only one drink to a customer in a restaurant and if someone wants more he'll have to walk to another restaurant. This moved Charlie Miller of Zionsville to comment:

The Soviets are sobering
On a drink, then walk decree
But dear Nikita Khrushchev
Still's as drunk as he can be.

THE LIGHTHOUSE—"What is moral is what you feel good after and what is immoral is what you feel bad after."—Ernest Hemingway.

Communiques . . .

Bootleg cabs, those unlicensed, unregistered taxis driven by thugs, are becoming a big menace in Indianapolis. It is the "hoodlum subway" here and is used by burglars, prostitutes and stickup men.

Marilyn Stubbs, the Indianapolis girl who goes by the stage name of Lyn Duranne on Broadway, is reading for a new play and, in the meantime, works for a fabric company and models. Her picture appeared recently in a national magazine ad for a (blush, blush) foundation garment . . . Herb (I Was a Spy for the FBI) Philbrick is another headliner who'll be in Indianapolis Nov. 14-15 for the All American Conference to Combat Communism.

Commander Jim Trimble of the Dr. Worthington Disabled American Veterans chapter here has asked State Supt. of Public Instruction Wilbur Young and City School Supt. H. L. Shabler to consider using J. Edgar Hoover's book, Masters of Deceit, as a textbook on communism in our schools . . . The Robert C. Walsman's (he's the attorney) have a brand-new daughter, Emily Ann.

Gov. Handley can make or break his campaign in the next few days. Tomorrow, he'll be socked with questions by the top political reporters in Indiana at a noon meeting of the Sigma Delta Chi journalism fraternity at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. The public is invited. For reservations, call Bill Shover at ME 8-2411.

UNITY 'MUST'

South May Yet Turn Red Tide

By ROBERT WEBB

Schools clap shut their doors, idle children roam the streets, coal-lack headlines and rasping voices cream to the world that racial strife is sapping the strength of the United States.

Sober, informed opinion speaks of Communist ambitions to turn the South into another Algeria. The finest of American leadership splits on whether or not white and Negro school children must sit together in school rooms.

Neighbor against neighbor, North against South, white against black, black against white -- the ominous division watching Moscow's plan for world conquest without a nuclear shot fired.

Could but the headlines in Asia, Africa, Europe and South America be laid before every U.

S. citizen, the shock would be sobering. For whatever cause, and regardless of where blame lies, the school issue is sowing the kind of hatred for America which could be her downfall.

Stealthily and with incredible discipline, as FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover reports in his book, "Masters of Deceit," are the Communists reaping the harvest of American disunity. They know human nature. They know how to play on the self-interests of individuals, regions and nations.

WEBB

Ready To Die

By their commitment to die, if necessary, for the enthronement of a world "dictatorship of the proletariat," these "masters of deceit" fight night and day to lay peoples and governments in the wastes of division.

So often Americans in high places, unable to comprehend the world strategy of Moscow which uses every tool at its command, make heinous blunders. While the race issue pitches the United States emotionally, Russian economists and technicians are carefully planning trade victories in the developing countries.

For example, a team of U. S. technicians were sent to an African country to help with a proposed manufacturing operation.

They took one look at the nation's existing plant facilities, then informed its officials that their machinery was obsolete and that a totally new, American-type outfitting would be required.

National pride was affronted. Along came a Russian team of technicians who inspected the same plant. They then turned to the officials and said something like this: "Your plant is about like the one we have been operating, but with some new equipment and other alterations it can do the job."

The Russians went there to win the leaders. The Americans went there with no such strategy but merely to tell the government what they thought about the plan, proposal. To the trained Communist, such absence of American strategy to win people is plain idiocy.

Human Nature Key

Only those who know human nature better than the Communists, and who have a superior faith, demonstrate any success in the kind of ideological warfare Moscow is waging. And these Americans seek the unity of hearts and minds which alone will answer Communism.

Mississippians who love their state enough to fight for the whole free world will see the school issue in a new light. They will see it as an opportunity to demonstrate the kind of bi-racial bonds which depend not at all on Supreme Court decisions.

Far more important than whether white and Negro attend the same schools is whether leaders of both races are able, selflessly, to inspire their people to the unity which begins to turn the tide against the "masters of deceit."

Fighting for that kind of unity means rising above the ebb and flow of this special interest or that. It means seeking racial integrity and racial purity of the highest caliber.

The Communists are relying on the South—and America—never to attain this vision. While they are unconcerned with the hue of school pupils, they are concerned with bashing all sides together for the fruition of a global strategy.

The headlines tell us they have not been entirely unsuccessful, but nothing says the South could not still pave the way for a turning of the tide. And that turning need not involve herding together of white and Negro school children.

--And Bear in Mind

Other recent books which, in the opinion of the staff of this Review, are of particular literary, topical or scholarly interest.

Fiction

A Mixture of Frailties, by Robertson Davies. An amusing, knowledgeable story about the making of a concert singer.
 Gate to the Sea, by Bryher. A poetic, yet austere story of Greek-barbarian conflict in the fourth century B. C.
 The Housebreaker of Shady Hill, by John Cheever. The joyless life of suburbia, in seven disciplined, well-made stories.
 The Secret of Luca, by Ignazio Silone. A moral tale of truth and love in a post-war Italian mountain village.

General

Abandon Ship!, by Richard F. Newcomb. A dramatic reconstruction of the 1945 sinking of the U. S. cruiser Indianapolis.
 Marlborough's Duchess, by Louis Kronenberger. A scholarly biography of tempestuous Sarah Churchill, 1660-1744.
 On My Own, by Eleanor Roosevelt. Third volume in the former First Lady's personal autobiography.
 The Letters of John Keats, 1814-1821, edited by Hyder Edward Rollins. Two volumes of the poet's correspondence.

RALPH Mc GILL

A Lesson We Can Learn

We can, if we will, learn a valuable lesson from the crisis brought on by the struggle to prevent Arab nationalism from being subverted by the Communists.

A better word for this nationalism is Pan-Arabian. "Pan" is from the Greek. It means "all" or "universal."

The familiar "Pan-American" is a good example. Iraq's new government has not yet affiliated with the United Arab Republic as originated, and ruled, by Egypt's Nasser. But in its first announcement of government, Iraq said it belongs to the "Arab Nation." It belongs to the idea of Pan-Arabia.

The Communists have not merely endorsed this idea. They have supported Nasser with weapons and money. They have contributed to the Communists in all possible countries in the Middle East. They applaud the rebels of Iraq. But this is a typical Communist technique of riding any movement which seems likely to upset the status quo in the Middle East—or in any other part of the world. They hope to be able to get a foothold. If they should, they quickly would get rid of the present Arab leadership, including Nasser.

But it is important we understand that as of now the great emotional force of Arab nationalism for Pan-Arabia is not Communist. The Communies support it for cynical, practical reasons. From this we can learn a lesson at home.

Old Problem

Our problem of race is an old one. It has improved slowly but steadily across the by-gone years, as the Negro citizens sought to live under the equal protection of the law in all public fields of national life. The courts have ruled there can be no discrimination between citizens.

It was inevitable that the Communist Party should do in our country exactly what they have done in the Middle East. They gave loud support to the court's finding.

But, all Americans, whether pro or con with regard to that court decision, owe it to themselves to understand that it is not a Communist movement any more than is Nasser's. We live in a time of complex problems and confusion. It does not make sense to deceive and confuse ourselves, or permit others to do it for us. Whatever one may think or feel about it, it is not communism to aspire to the equal protection of the Constitution and the laws of our country. This aspiration on the part of the Negro citizenship would exist if there were no Russia, just as Arab nationalism was in full cry in 1916 before there was a Communist revolution in the Czar's Russia.

Technique

Whatever we may feel about it, or do about it, it is important to know that. It is a Communist technique to make a people distrust themselves, their government and their courts. That any of us in this nation, which is so determined to resist the evil of communism, should allow anger or prejudice to accept for a minute the preposterous, un-American suggestion that court members are Communist or influenced by Russia, as some of our more angry persons have charged, is unworthy of us.

We can be angry, resentful, and we can seek to have the court decision reversed. We can have our representatives in Congress initiate counterlegislation. Any legal avenue is open to attack the court. But no person of common sense will harbor the Communist suggestion. It delights the Communists, of course, to have our more demagogic personalities so attack the court. Communism profits thereby.

The way ahead, at home and internationally, is going to be one of hardship, danger and trial of all that is best in us and our form of government. Loyalty to America is a necessary ingredient of that future. We can thank God that communism does not attract more than a handful of Americans. The Negro, for all the effort by Communists to attract him because of the many discriminations, has had relatively few turncoats. But communism persists and will remain an ever-present danger. We can learn a lesson from the Middle East and not permit Communists, whom I. Edgar Hoover properly has called "Masters of Deceit," to make us doubt ourselves and our institutions. Our problem of race is an American problem. It is, in fact, 100 per cent American.

MASTERS OF DECEIT, J. Edgar Hoover's primer on Communism in the United States, is a best-seller. Five copies of the book have been presented to the Kingsport Public Library—three by Kiwanis, two by the Elks Club. Shown here:

~~Hoover Hints Red~~ Conspiracy

THE DIRECTOR of the FBI is in the best position to know the facts about its traffic in treason and its deadly threat to America. In 374 pages of testimony, experience, research and analysis, J. Edgar Hoover presents a timely, readable and invaluable book, "Masters of Deceit" (Holt, $3).

"Masters of Deceit" points out that Communist deception has always been coupled with violence as in the Soviet seizure of Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, etc., with the bloody subjugation of their 86-million people with guns and tanks when they sought freedom. Here indeed, is 20th century colonialism. Mr. Hoover gives the factual story of a disciplined party of fanatical hardcore members surrounded by their starry-eyed fellow-travelers hard at work to add America to the conquests of Soviet Russia. This may sound to us as far-fetched as it must once have sounded to the Czechs.

We learn from Mr. Hoover's book actual examples of how Communists infiltrate and make "fronts" of loyal organizations. He gives the inside story of their effort to exploit minorities by pretending to be their friends but always, in the words of George S. Schuyler quoted by Mr. Hoover, "their object was simply to strengthen the hand of Russia."

The Hoover book will shock the reader and put him on guard against their tricks "to make him a pawn to be manipulated for the attainment of party ends."

"The vast majority of Negro leaders have rebuffed the Communists' attempt to exploit them," says Mr. Hoover. Again quoting George S. Schuyler, "Some had their eyes opened earlier than others." Certain it is that all of us now must stand up and be counted against this mortal threat to our country and our freedom.

Man About Town

"Murder, Inc." insiders say late chief Albert Anastasia's sudden demise was ordered by underworlders in Cuba. Because Mr. "A" allegedly demanded being "cut in" on their prosperous gambling casinos in Havana. Ann Sheridan's daily roses come from Juan Costello, Mexican merchant. Lord Henry Huntley and Ann Baxter are so smitten they think the Tower of London chimes are playing Their Song. Barbara Hutton now feels flye-and-tender over Richard Genrod, 26-year-old Parisian painter. Prince Bernhard (of the Netherlands) dates toothpaste model Genevieve Clury in Parce. John Jacob Astor and Jill Edmonds, the modelicious, are The Big Burg's latest jacknill. Wotz Bing's boy Gary Crosby doon breaking all those hearts? Last week mannikin Joan Lowe was his chum in the candlelight places. This week his Big Interest is blonde model Lola Mason, formerly Joe DiMaggio No. 1 fan. We suppose you've heard about the space-girl who landed in Hollywood and said: "Take me to Trujillo, Junior!" Bill Kennedy says Trujillo's boat isn't a man of war. "It's more of a tramp steamer!"

The Senate committee investigating Nielsen, Pulse (and other rating chiefs) made Daily Variety's front page leading banner with: "TV Stations Cheat on Ratings." Like the col'm has been saying for years! Mr. Nielsen told Senate probbers there are 43 million tv families and he polls only 1050. Hmf. The Tax Dept.'s next campaign will be aimed at stashers of hefty coin in foreign safety deposit hideaways. Many movie folks will be microscoped. Big shift going on at the Soviet Embassy: Many staffers being sent home. A memo from Moscow complained they were getting "too Americanized". Roy M. Cohn and David Schine must be enjoying Sherman Adams' predicament. It was Mr. Adams who put them on the hot seat in the Sen. McCarthy case.

There's nothing wrong with Willie Mays' batting and fielding that a little kiss (after every game from his wife) couldn't cure, according to their neighbors and pals. Mary Beth Hughes' visits to Arthur Murray's dance school (in H'wood) are mainly because of tutor Vernon Kidd. Newsmag Johnny Florea is mystified. His wife (Marjle Millar) is divorcing him, but she didn't show up in court last week for the hearing. Went home to mother in Washington State. Barry Sullivan's former mate (Marie) is having a sotto-voice romance with a 20th Century-Fox cameraman. The Commies' newspaper (when and if revived) will feature a series "exposing" capitalists-columnists, with WW scheduled first. (First as usual)... Don't Invite Dept.: Abbe Lane and understudy Betty McGuire.

The Associated Press on June 19th reported that a U.S. honor guard (including military band) passed in review before Field Marshal General von Manstein, one of Hitler's pet generals, who was sentenced to 18 years in prison for "directing the mass extermination of Jews, and for inhuman acts of violence against other peoples". The AP story stated his crimes "were so terrible that during his trial, children were removed from the courtroom, because the description of his deeds would have been too horrible for young ears". The American honor guard honored this convicted war criminal while a memorial was dedicated to Germans who fought for Hitler. The only New York newspaper in which we saw the above AP story was the German language Staats Zeitung on June 29th.

Rhonda Fleming's Vegas adventure (two days after her divorce) didn't make the gazettes. The Tropicana Hotel was the scene. Vegas cops persuaded one chap to leave town. Her new love wisely fled. The August Cavalier mag features a dilly about teevee's top female fraud. Maestro Stokowski's new lady friend is a 20-year-old protege. Piper Laurie's giggle-maker is now Richard Anderson. Dorothy Malone's beaux includes Jeff Hill, social North Carolinian. Hildegard Neff's favorite man (in Yurrop) is U.S. insurance exec A. Singer. Carnegie Hall won't be torn down until 1960. Damita Jo and husband Steve Gibson (one of the Red Caps) made their splituation legal. Don George, songsmith, whose big chick was "The Yellow Rose of Texas," is getting inspiration from Barbara Hunt, Cafe de Paris dancer.

Inside the Communist Party: Mass distribution to industrial plants of Red propaganda folders (rather than pamphlets, mags and newspapers) is being stepped up by the Party's Education Committee... Many families are buying G-Man Hoover's book, "Masters of Deceit," for their collegiate children... Plans are now under way to hold a Red training school in St. Louis, similar to those in California and N.Y... Despite denials the two highest Red chiefs in Los Angeles will quit before (or during) September... Northern Calif. Comrades plan a "secret" meeting in S.F. the latter part of July. (Some secret.)

Desilu's new one-hour Westinghouse series will include "Bernadette" with Pier Angeli in the title role. Her first tv adventure... Ex-Prohibition agent Elliott Ness' book, "The Untouchables," is a must-read thriller. About the ten Prohibition agents who couldn't be bought by Capone. They destroyed his empire and sent him to Alcatraz... What did he need it for dept: Talented pianist Maurice Yocco was making $900 per when picked up on that bad check rap last week... Joe E. Ross of the Phil Silvers show and Harper's fashion staffer Marlene Dorsay wed July 4th at the Concord Hotel, upstate. They met there last Summer... The new Broadway cigarette smoke-ring sign face belongs to N.Y. Yankees' star Yogi Berra... Remember all those rocknroll quartets and quintets that were all over the place a few months ago? Many are scrambling for jobs as dishwashers, bus boys, porters, etc... Mentalist Kuda Bux claims he never had a headache in his life. (Wot, no income tax?)

Let's Run It Again Dept.: Time mag, ignoring the fact that this reporter alone debunked Suzy Parker's claim that she was not married, printed: "Newsmen uncovered the marriage certificate"... Newsmen???... Translation: NeWWsman!!!... Phillip Dash of Miami and model Rusty Roth will be united July 4th in Florida... Peggy Dietrich (whose figure makes her our second favorite Dietrich) is now a feature at Ben Blue's... Midtown headwaiters have been warned to watch for teen-agers carrying phony auto licenses and other "identification" to order hooch... National Telefilm Associates reports that the first syndicated buyer of the "WW File" series is Channel 7, Boston, whose 316,000 watts blanket all of New England... Att'n, West Coast editors: This is the lowdown on the Vegas Tropicana feud with an alleged critic servicing Los Angeles newspapers: Before they barred him they gave him a check... Harold Mary's comment on Washington's scandal about rugs, hotel bills and vicunas: "The difference between a gift and a bribe depends on whether the recipient is a Democrat or Republican."

--And Bear in Mind

Other recent books which, in the opinion of the staff of this Review, are of particular literary, topical or scholarly interest.

Fiction

- A Friend in Power*, by Carlos Baker. A suspenseful and moral tale of a university's search for a new president.
- The Affair*, by Hans Koningsberger. A young man's compulsive love for a woman painter, set in Zurich, 1944
- The Ginger Man*, by J. P. Donleavy. The comic, amorous adventures of a red-bearded rogue in England and Ireland.
- The Magic Barrel*, by Bernard Malamud. Stories ranging from New York to Rome, of personal crises in ordinary lives.

General

- Foreign Policy*, by Thomas K. Finletter. A former Air Force Secretary charts a foreign policy for America.
- Man in Modern Fiction*, by Edmund Fuller. A vigorous polemic against the mode of much contemporary American writing.
- The Great EB*, by Herman Kogan. A rich and varied history of that faithful servant, the Encyclopaedia Britannica.
- The March of Conquest*, by Telford Taylor. An analysis of the German victories of 1940 in Western Europe.

the books you want to read are — usually — -OF-THE-MONTH CLUB selections or alternates

FOR EXAMPLE HERE ARE A DOZEN AVAILABLE TO MEMBERS THIS MONTH OUT OF OVER 100

INSIDE RUSSIA TODAY

by John Gunther

The latest Inside book by one of our most knowledgeable journalists. "American readers should approach this book not only as an interesting and informative one, but almost as if it were required reading. For the basic brutal fact is that we must learn what Russia is like." Special price to members $4.50

BY LOVE POSSESSED

by James Gould Cozzens

"The maturest and most readable piece of fiction we have been privileged to offer our membership for many years"—Clifton Fadiman. It has received more critical acclaim than any novel in years. Special price to members $3.95

ANATOMY OF A MURDER

by Robert Traver

A "wickedly quizzical" novel telling the unvarnished story of a murder and a murder trial in Michigan. Written by an experienced jurist, it is an honestly revealing melodrama of the law "raised to the level of adult narrative." Special price to members $3.95

THE WINTHROP WOMAN

by Aaya Seton

"A superb piece of historical portraiture" this is a novel about Governor John Winthrop's rebellious niece Elizabeth, who lived at odds with her heritage in the bigoted and savage world of 17th-century New England. By the author of Katherine and other best-selling novels. Special price to members $4.50

THE ENEMY CAMP

by Jerome Weidman

The story of a man's bondage to passion and prejudice, by the author of I Can Get It For You Wholesale. "For excitement and interest it can successfully compete with any best-seller of the last few years." Special price to members $4.25

BELOW THE SALT

by Thomas B. Costain

A "Grade-A" swashbuckling recreation of the events that led King John to sign the Magna Carta, by the author of The Silver Chalice and other novels and histories. Price $3.95

THE MOUNTAIN ROAD

by Theodore H. White and SEIDMAN AND SON

by Ellick Moll

Double Selection. "A stunning story of dynamite, China and an American's conscience." Mr. White, author of Fire in the Ashes and co-author of Thunder Out of China, now writes an "explosively realistic" novel of an American major's first combat command in China in 1944. . . . Seidman and Son is a "happy book," the story of a genial dress manufacturer, told in the idiom of New York's cloak-and-suit business. "A joy to read. Cheerful . . . often uproarious."—John Mason Brown. Special combined price of both volumes to members $4.95

The Story of Communism in America and How to Fight It

by J. Edgar Hoover

"This is the most important—indeed, the most imperative—book of the decade . . . powerful and informative, as up-to-date as this morning. This is for literate Americans a 'must' book."—Daniel A. Poling, Christian Herald. "Indispensable . . . the most authoritative book ever written on communism in America."—N. Y. Times. Special price to members $4.50

A DEATH IN THE FAMILY

by James Agee and

THE WAPSHOT CHRONICLE

by John Cheever

The newest Pulitzer Prize novel. A Death in the Family is a remarkable portrait of a boy and the impact of sudden domestic tragedy. "An utterly individual and original book."—N. Y. Times. . . . Winner of the 1958 National Book Award for Fiction, The Wapshot Chronicle is a "magnificently exuberant" story of Leander Wapshot of Massachusetts, and several generations of his family. Special combined price of both volumes to members $4.95

THE NEW CLASS

by Milovan Djilas

Probably the most devastating anti-Communist document ever written. By the now imprisoned Vice-President of Yugoslavia, it is "a book that could shake the Communist world."—N. Y. Herald Tribune. Price $2.95

THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS

by Millor Burrows

The story of the discovery of these extraordinary records and an analysis of their contributions to biblical history. "The first comprehensive popular account of the scrolls . . . notably successful." Photographs and maps. Special price to members $4.95

AND YOU WILL RECEIVE FREE

ONE OF THESE SETS OR REFERENCE WORKS

IF YOU AGREE TO BUY FIVE ADDITIONAL BOOKS FROM THE CLUB IN THE NEXT YEAR FROM APPROXIMATELY 200 THAT WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE

GOOD SENSE: A TRIAL SUBSCRIPTION

THERE are at least three benefits of membership in the Book-of-the-Month Club that are beyond question. First, you get the books you want to read instead of missing them through overbusyness or procrastination—books such as those described above. Second, you pay an average of 20% less for them than otherwise. Third, you share in more than $13,000,000 worth of free books (retail value) now distributed annually as Book-Dividends. This offer really represents "advanced" Book-Dividends earned by the purchase of the books you engage to buy later.

* Each month you receive a full and careful report about the next Book-of-the-Month. If you judge it is a book you would not enjoy, you may send back a form (always provided) specifying some other book. Or you may simply say, "Send me nothing."

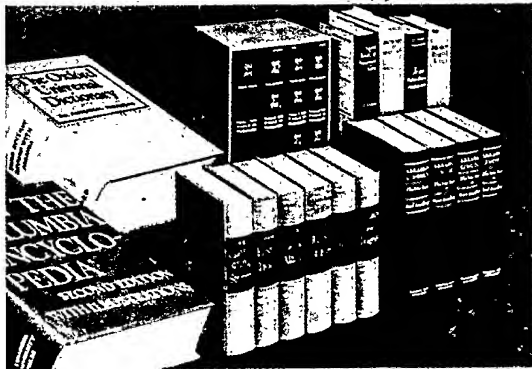

* If you continue after this trial, you will receive a Book-Dividend, averaging around $7 in retail value, with every second book you buy.
